

Advocates for the American Osteopathic Association 2009-2010 AAOA Official Visit Request Form

The Advocates are telling the world about osteopathic medicine. Using online social networking sites like Twitter and Facebook, AAOA President Heidi Couch is inviting everyone to “Join the Conversation.” An official AAOA visitor can speak to your group about the goals for the year, new programs like “Join the Conversation,” Educational Endowment, Special Projects, and much more.

The Advocates appreciate the opportunity to speak with your group and participate in events that promote and support the osteopathic profession. Every effort will be made to accommodate your request. Learn more about promoting the osteopathic profession; request your official visitor today.
